

St. Charles Park District

Voice: Female, preferably Sharyn

Music: You Pick ☺

Thank you for calling the St. Charles Park District. We appreciate your patience and will return to your call as quickly as possible.

All little girls are invited to Pancakes with the Princesses. Meet Cinderella, Jasmine, Snow White, Ariel and Sleeping Beauty on Saturday, May twelfth from nine to ten thirty a m at the Hickory Knolls Discovery Center. Sign up now for this magical event!

The Pottawatomie Golf Course is open for play as weather permits. For tee time reservations, call 6 3 0 5 8 4 8 3 5 6. Golf enthusiasts can sign up for a variety of leagues, lessons and age-appropriate tournaments. For more information, visit us online at www.pottawatomiegolf.com.

Learn quiet-water canoeing from a member of the St. Charles Canoe Club. Families with children ages nine and over are welcome. Thursday, May tenth will be an indoors discussion about equipment and basic instruction. Then on Saturday, May twelfth, enjoy on-the-water practice on the Fox River. Fee is only five dollars for residents and seven fifty for non-residents.

Get your family together to play the most challenging course in the Fox River Valley! The Park District's award-winning 18-hole River View Miniature Golf Course opens for weekends beginning May fifth from eleven a m to seven p m. Moms golf for free on May thirteenth in honor of Mother's Day! The course will be open daily at eleven a m beginning May seventeenth. Enjoy naturally landscaped greens and a multitude of obstacles. The Victorian-style gazebo provides a resting area with a spectacular view of the Fox River. Remember to indulge in America's favorite summer-time snacks at the concession stand. Check out our website at www.stcharlesparks.org for a variety of daily specials all season long. Once you try us, you may never want to putt anywhere else!

Looking for something to do outdoors now that spring is here? People of all ages are welcome to enjoy a magnificent and free exhibition of original and unique sculptures in Mount Saint Mary Park. This must-see experience is open from dawn to dusk beginning in May through September. The annual Sculpture in the Park event raises the awareness of sculptural arts, beautiful parks and historic downtown St. Charles.

Enjoy farm fun every Wednesday and Saturday all year long! Milk a cow, gather farm fresh eggs or help with family farm chores. Fees are required to participate in these programs. For more information, visit www.primrosefarmpark.com.

Enjoy a warm spring evening listening to the melodies frogs! Explore Hickory Knolls Natural area to discover frog habitats. All ages are welcome on Friday, May eighteenth from seven to eight thirty p m. Advance registration is required. Fee is fifteen dollars for residents and twenty two fifty for non-residents.

Looking for a place to host a family get together, baby shower, reunion or wedding? Whether you want an indoor facility or an outdoor pavilions, we have the space for you! For more information, visit www \(dot\) s t c parks \(dot\) org.

On your mark...Get set...Go! The Tiny Tots Track Meet for ages three to sex will be held on Saturday, June second beginning at ten a m at Thompson Middle School. All participants will compete in their own age group and will be able to take part in four running events and one field event. Everyone is a winner just for participating!