1. Thanks for your call to the Printing Factory, where you're assured of the best prices and best turnaround time in the industry because we perform our magic in-house! Whether it's full color printing services on our Heidelberg 6 color presses, digital printing on our Xerox digital press, die cutting, foil stamping, embossing, debossing, scoring, folding, perforating, numbering, , we do it all in house! Just put us to the test and thanks again for holding.
2. We began as a poster printing company, offering large format offset posters, digital banners, store signage, and billboards up to 50-by-150 feet on over 20 different materials. Today, we're a more diverse operation- offering commercial offset printing and digital printing of catalogs, calendars, journals, magazines, brochures, menus, full color envelopes, postcards, and more. Have a look...at Printing Factory NY dot com.
3. Looking to print a newspaper or magazine? Look no further! At the Printing Factory, we print on newsprint every day. In fact, we're one of only a few printers who have the capabilities to print on newsprint in small quantities! Or, if want an extra shine on your next printed piece, just ask your customer service rep about our in-house U-V coating service, available even on small jobs. We can talk about it during this call.
4. Looking for a certain special paper stock to print your next job? We carry over 20 different paper substrates including over 10 that contain more than 30% recycled content. While we're on the subject of environmental impact, we're proud to be pioneers in the eco-revolution, using soy inks and recycled paper for over 15 years... before it was cool! We even recycle all our waste paper and much more. Check out our environmental initiative at Printing Factory NY dot com.
5. Did you know? We're one of the few printers with capability to print full color envelopes in-house. We print magnets in-house, too! We'll be glad to provide a quote on any of your prospective printing jobs...please be sure to ask your representative when we return. Or for a possibly faster response, email us at Printing Factory NY at G Mail dot com. Be sure to ask about same-day printing options while you're at it.
6. Want to free your company time of mailing tasks? We have a complete direct mail department to help with all your mailing needs. Services include presorting, inkjetting, folding, tabbing, and more. We can also provide customized lists so you're targeting the right people for your business. We also offer complete door-to-door distribution services throughout New York and New Jersey, we do it all for you at the Printing Factory!
